to issue the corresponding notice of sale to be published in a newspaper of general circulation without the need of further orders or writs from this Court. Such sale shall be subject to the confirmation of this Court. Upon confirmation, the Marshal shall execute the corresponding deed of judicial sale to the purchaser and he shall be entitled to the delivery of the property sold and its physical possession, in accordance with law. Said possession may be obtained through eviction of the occupant of the property without the need of further order of this Court, if executed within sixty (60) days from the confirmation of the public sale.

10. Any funds derived from the sale to be made in accordance with the terms of this judgment and such further orders of this Court shall be applied as follows:

a) To the payment of all proper expenses attendant upon said sale;

b) To the payments of that part of the indebtedness owed to the Plaintiff in the same order and for the amounts specified, and set forth in the preceding paragraph 6;

c) If after making the above payments there shall be surplus, said surplus shall be delivered to the Clerk of this Court, subject to further orders of the Court;

d) In the case the proceeds from the said sale are not sufficient to cover the full amounts owing to the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to a deficiency judgment against the Defendant and shall have execution therefor.

CIVIL NO. 05-2096 (JP)

11. The Property Registrar of the corresponding Property of Registry of Puerto Rico shall proceed to the recording of the judicial sale deed in favor of the purchaser, free of any liens subsequent to the date of the execution of the foreclosed mortgage.

12. Plaintiff in these proceedings may apply to this Court for such further orders as it may deem advisable to its interest in accordance with the terms of this Judgment and the Clerk shall proceed to issue of course all necessary writs to enforce and execute the same. Fed. R. Civ. P. 77(a).

IT IS SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 29th day of December, 2005.
